The ONLY
AIRLINE WORKERS
whose travel benefits are at risk
are those WITHOUT A CONTRACT.

Reports have surfaced that Delta managemnt is claiming that if we VOTE TO JOIN THE IAM that WE WILL LOSE OUR FLIGHT BENEFITS.

SIMPLY NOT TRUE!

All IAM members in the airline industry have their flight benefits protected in their contracts.

Currently, flight benefits at Delta ARE NOT PROTECTED and CAN BE TAKEN AWAY at ANYTIME for ANY REASON;
the same way Delta managemnt took away our Sky Club access.

Southwest

Airline trip passes will be issued to qualified employees in accordance with Company policy.

American Airlines

Employees covered by this Agreement and their immediate families will be granted the same transportation privileges on the Company's system as may be established by Company regulations for all personnel.

DELTA

Because Delta workers do not have a legally binding contract, travel benefits can be discontinued or modified at anytime for any reason.

Labor contracts in the airline industry protect the travel benefits of unionized airline workers. The agreements require that union members receive thesame travel benefits as ALL other company employees, including pilots and management.

At Delta, management holds all the cards and can change our benefits whenever they want. Just like they did when thy ended our Sky Club Access.
